

CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY

Arthur Henderson Arrested Friday Evening.—Alleged He Stole Load of Corn.

GIVEN PRELIMINARY HEARING

And Bound Over To Circuit Court Under $500 Bond.—Prison Record.

In Justice Congdon's court this morning Arthur Henderson was bound over to circuit court under $500 bond to answer to the charge of grand larceny, stealing a wagon load of corn.

Henderson lives in Seymour but has for some time been visiting relatives near Peters Switch. Since some time in December farmers in that locality have been losing corn. Much of it was taken from the cribs in the Steinker bottoms. Among the losers were Fred Voss, Henry Steinker, Henry Burbrink, Thomas J. Cobbe and August Eichbush.

Recently Henderson has been under suspicion and for a couple of weeks he has been under surveillance by the farmers. Friday afternoon it was considered that sufficient evidence to warrant action had been obtained. A warrant for Henderson's arrest was secured and the officers here were placed on the lookout for him, it being known that he was on the way to town with a load of corn. He was seen coming into the city and while he was at the Hlopp Mills selling the corn he was placed under arrest.

This morning he was arranged before Justice Congdon for a preliminary hearing. He plead not guilty but the evidence given by quite a number of farmers was sufficient to warrant his being bound over.

Henderson has a prison record already having been sent to the penitentiary once before after conviction on a larceny charge.

PRESIDENT ENDORSED
By Republican Editorial Association. Local Option Favored.

The Republican Editorial Association at the state meeting at Indianapolis Friday adopted resolutions endorsing Taft for renomination, condemning the state administration and taking a stand for local option. The latter resolution caused much discussion and was adopted late in the afternoon. Of the 33 voting 18 were in favor of the resolution and 15 against pulling such a plank in the platform this year.

The resolutions were as follows:

"At its last annual meeting the Republican Editorial Association of Indiana, noting with pride and satisfaction the progress of events under the wise and patriotic administration of President William H. Taft and the evidences of popular appreciation of his courage, fidelity and fortitude in the cause of good government, confidently predicted that his attitude and acts in relation to public affairs would grow in favor as the character and value of the service rendered became more fully developed and better understood. Then and there this association pledged to the national administration the constant and loyal support of the Republican press of Indiana and appealed to the Republicans of the state to rally with us on common ground in defense of the splendid achievements of President Taft in the execution of Republican laws, policies and principles.

"Again assembled in annual convention, the Republican Editorial Association, once more viewing the field of administrative endeavor, finds nothing to withdraw or retract, but on the contrary many additional acts to commend and applaud. With confidence fully confirmed in the statesmanship, ability and patriotic purpose of President William H. Taft, we hereby renew our approval of his administration as safe, wise and beneficial to the best interests of the country, and we most heartily indorse his candidacy for renomination as the Republican candidate for President.

"The record of the present state administration constitutes an issue upon which the Republican party may confidently challenge a verdict from the people of Indiana at the approaching election.

"Elected upon a pledge of economy and retrenchment, this administration has been characterized by extravagance and waste.

"Committed to the abolition of useless bureaus and new offices, it has created new offices and bureaus and increased the cost of the old.

"The institutional system of the state, lifted by a series of Governors, beginning with Governor Matthews, to a high plane of partisan control, has been made by an ambitious executive the object of petty political manipulation with consequent decrease of efficiency and increase of cost.

"Following a period of continual debt reduction under Republican control, the inevitable end of the present tendency in the state's fiscal affairs is either additional bond issues or substantially increased taxation.

"An issue of vital importance to the people of Indiana is presented by the control of the party temporarily dominant in the state by a corrupt and corrupting special interest having as the purpose of its habitual political activities the exploitation of government for its own financial gain. In control of the majority in the last General Assembly, this interest brought about the repeal of a Republican law providing for a form of home rule on the saloon question, which had met the manifest approval of a large majority of the people in the counties affected, and substituted a measure which has rehabilitated its business in nearly fifty counties of the state from which the people had excluded it by aggregate majorities of over 70,000. In the last General Assembly the public interest was subordinated throughout to the financial ends of this single private interest.

"Following that disgraceful session of the Legislature the Democratic state organization has fallen within the tyrannous control of brewery bosses who hold to the theory that their business should rule the people and not the people their business. The time is here in our opinion, when the people of Indiana should throw off the yoke of the organized and capitalized liquor interest, and through the Republican party write a new declaration of independence. We, therefore favor local option with the county as the unit for the regulation of the liquor traffic."

REPUDIATES CONFESSION

Lulu Sutton Denies Statements Alleged To Have Been Made To Grand Jury.

TRIES TO SHIELD BROTHER

In Trial of Charles Mitchell For Murder.—Hamilton Girl Becomes Stubborn.

Lula Sutton and Della Hamilton, Seymour products, were star performers in the trial of Charles Mitchell at Bedford Friday. The former went back on statements credited to her in the grand jury room and is trying to aid her brother. The Bedford Democrat contained the following account of the day's proceedings:

A somewhat unusual occurrence took place in circuit court this morning soon after the Mitchell murder trial was resumed, and was immediately followed by surprise for the state. The unusual incident was in the sending of Della Hamilton to jail for refusing to answer the questions put to her by Attorney Boruff in cross examination, and the surprise for the state came from the witness Lula Sutton, a sister of the man who is on trial, who repudiated her confession in connection with the murder and denied the statements she made before the grand jury.

During the trial Thursday afternoon, soon after Della Hamilton had taken the stand, she refused to answer several questions and refused to give any reason or excuse for not doing so. The agent of the girls' school who accompanied her here held a short whispered consultation with her, which was followed by a ten minutes recess. After she returned to the witness stand she appeared to be sullen, and the attorneys for the defense had hard work to get her to answer. This same spirit was manifest in the witness this morning, and after she had been admonished and warned several times by Judge Shea, she was ordered taken to jail until she was willing to answer. As she left the stand she whispered to herself, "I'll not answer it." As she reached the agent of the girls' school who sat near the railing, and who spoke to her, the girl replied with much spirit, "I'll never answer another question now." Just before she was ordered taken to jail she gave as a reason for not answering the questions that "they won't let me answer the questions as I did the first time."

When the Hamilton girl had been removed Lula Sutton was called. As she took the stand there was a toss of the head and a sneer on her lips and she looked vindictively towards Mr. Underwood and Prosecutor Hays. She had answered but two or three questions when it became apparent that she was going to repudiate her confession and the statements she made before the grand jury, and shield her brother and Joe Fultz, as far as possible. She said that when she was being questioned before the mayor at the time of her arrest she was fright-

GOOD SHOWING FOR SEYMOUR

Receipts From Red Cross Seals Sale Here Amounted to $30.65.

NO EFFORT TO WIN PRIZES

Announcement Is Made That Over 1,000,000 Seals Were Sold In State.

A very satisfactory showing was made in Seymour this season in the sale of Red Cross seals which was in charge of the Tuesday and Magazine clubs. There was no effort made to win the prizes offered in the state, but the interest in the cause which the sale represented was manifested in the liberal purchases.

The result of the sales was made public today. Of the 4500 seals sent here 3065 were sold, the receipts therefore being $30.65.

The report for the state has also just been given out.

More than one million Red Cross seals were sold in Indiana in 1911, making a record for the state. Terre Haute wins the $5,000 prize given by the McCrum-Howell Company. The other six prizes go to Kirkpatrick, Danville, Pierceton, Greensburg, Mt. Carmel and Goodland.

This announcement was made Friday. It is based upon reports from all but a few of the 426 cities and towns, among them Indianapolis and Anderson. When all reports are received, the sales managers expect the record to reach 1,250,000, a 100 per cent. increase over the sale of 1910.

According to the conditions of the contest the city selling 10,000 seals and making the highest per capita sale would be awarded the prize. Terre Haute headed the list with a gross sale of 192,000 Red Cross seals and a per capita record of 3.37. Greensburg ranked next.

The largest per capita sale of Red Cross seals was made by Kirkpatrick, a small town of 87 inhabitants near Crawfordsville. In that town 11.10 seals per inhabitant were sold. Danville ranked second with a sale of 4.78, and Pierceton third with 4.52 to its credit. The per capita sale in Mt. Carmel was 3.26 and in Goodland 2.92. Last year 680,000 seals were sold in this state.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

JACK SHEETS, HERO.

One of my correspondents asks for the story of Jack Sheets, the wireless hero.

Here it is:

Jack Sheets is a sixteen-year-old high school boy of Philadelphia. During his spare hours he mastered the mystery of wireless telegraphy and learned the code.

Last summer he secured a position during vacation as wireless operator on the steamer Lexington, an Atlantic coast vessel.

On the first voyage out the ship ran into a storm off the coast of South Carolina. Huge waves swept over the vessel. The frightened passengers huddled in the cabin, while the crew fought to keep the Lexington off the much dreaded reefs.

Lying prone on the deck, where no man could stand, and cool as a veteran, was young Sheets, flashing his distress signal over the waters.

Before long, because of the buffeting of the waters, the wireless rigging was parted from the transmitter, rendering the boy's instrument useless.

But—
 In his makeup was hero stuff. He realized that the lives of passengers and crew were in his small hands, and he took a desperate chance.

No sooner was the connection broken than he started to climb into the rigging with his instrument. Up there, stretched between the masts, was the wireless outfit.

The captain, himself lashed to the wheel, looked to see the boy blown away in the teeth of the gale or thrown into the sea by the lurching of the ship.

It was a fearsome chance.

Summoning all his determination and every atom of his strength and agility, young Sheets slowly but surely made his way. Lashing himself to the mast, he was able to attach his instrument to the wires.

And there he stayed.

Meantime the vessel had drifted on to the reefs and was pounding out its life. And Jack Sheets, the sixteen-year-old boy, was up there soundly on his pleading call for aid.

Finally through the storm came an answering signal, and shortly after the revenue cutter Yamacrow came to the rescue.

It was a situation requiring good seamanship, but the passengers and crew were taken off, one at a time. The last one off was the captain. The next to the last was Jack Sheets.

Yes; heroism is common.

But, mind you, it never is common place.

FORCED LAWYER TO TELL JURORS

Questions Relating to John McNamara's Check Books.

AN INTERESTING CONTENTION

In Compelling Leo Rappaport to Tell the Federal Grand Jury What He Knew About His Former Client's Money Transactions, Judge Anderson Made Strong Point Concerning "Privileged Communications" to Lawyers.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—When called before the federal grand jury Leo Rappaport, attorney for John J. McNamara after the latter's extradition to California, refused to answer any questions relating to McNamara's checkbooks, which were believed to be in his possession. He was asked some questions, but answered all in effect that the matter was between him and his client, and was privileged. His refusal in the grand jury room was brought to the attention of Judge Anderson, who asked a number of very pointed questions and at the close of the argument declared that Rappaport had not come before him in good faith. Cases were cited to show that such matters were not privileged, and Rappaport was ordered to answer the questions, the court saying that if lawyers could not be compelled to produce evidence that was in existence before the crime was committed the courts might as well go out of business. Rappaport returned to the grand jury room, and it is supposed that he gave the required evidence, as he afterward received his discharge as a witness.

In overruling Rappaport's motion to quash the subpoena, Judge Anderson referred to the evasion as to whether the evidence was then in Rappaport's possession and said: "I do not recognize that an attorney of the bar of this court, when he was granted the privilege of practicing in this court and took the oath, has any right to evade in this court. This motion is an evasive motion. It is not a square out statement."

The evidence involved consists of a checkbook, the stubs and cancelled checks, pertaining to an account of J. J. McNamara at the Columbia National bank. This account, declared United States Attorney Miller, was the one which consisted of the $1,000 a month set aside by the executive board of the union, and comprised the fund against which McNamara drew on paying for the unlawful transportation of explosives and in hiring men to blow up buildings and structures.

Rappaport's petition did not say whether he had in his possession the articles named in the subpoenas, or any other evidence, and although Rappaport in his own behalf declared that he construed the law to mean that he did not even have the right to tell whether he had anything or not, Judge Anderson told him that his "feelings were too tender" on that subject and that his petition was an "evasion."

HE'LL COME BACK

"Dogface Charley" Takes His Annual Deportation Lightly.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—Another "distinguished" citizen has left Gary. Michael Yoonovitch, otherwise known as Dogface Charley, has been deported to New York, his "freight" having been paid from the proceeds of a collection taken up at the Gary city hall.

A police escort saw to it that Mr. Yoonovitch was cozily fixed in his Pullman compartment. He received strict instructions not to come back, but previously when he was deported he always returned. To close friends the departing citizen said he would be on hand at the next election in Gary.

Since his release from the Crown Point jail, where he was taken following his pressing a pistol to Sheriff Grant's head while serving as special policeman, he has been a thorn to the city officials, as he was constantly demanding a political job. Public sentiment was against his appointment, but he was again sworn in as a special policeman, and was arrested for slugging a woman.

A Few Days of Grace.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 27.—Charles McGalliard, Jr., convicted of the murder of Miss Alta Hayworth here last Halloween, has been allowed a few days of grace before beginning his term in the Indiana state prison. McGalliard's attorneys will file a motion for a new trial and the delay will be used in preparing the bill of exceptions.

Both Were Taken to Jail.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 27.—G. W. Townsley, a brakeman, while in a caboose accused Claude Ferguson of chicken stealing. Ferguson shot him in the leg, but Townsley was able to knock Ferguson down and kick him several times before others in the car could stop him. Both were taken to jail.

Removed For Safe Keeping.

Petersburg, Ind., Jan. 27.—Henry Breuster, who attacked a ten-year-old daughter of a coal miner at Ayrshire, was bound over to the Pike circuit court. The miners are greatly incensed at the outrage, and Breuster was brought to this city to avoid violence.

LEO RAPPAPORT

ARE DIAMETRICALLY OPPOSED IN VIEWS

Miners and Operators Far From An Agreement.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—It required but a few moments after they met to prove to the scale committee of the miners and operators the wide divergence in their views as to prices to be paid for mining coal after the expiration of the present agreement in April.

The miners' demands include 10 cents per ton increase and 20 per cent on all other work about the mines. The operators met this with a demand for a reduction of 10 cents per ton for mining coal and a corresponding decrease in the pay for other work.

The operators urged the increased cost of mining owing to the many new state laws which require large annual expenditures, and which the miners themselves have brought upon operators, and also that there is already a surplus of mined coal, and higher wages would mean that the miners would be idle a great part of the time and would lose more than the reduction which is asked.

The miners asked that the international officers be permitted to take part in the session of the joint committee, and this was agreed to, but the officers will have no vote in determining any questions arising in the committee. There is no indication whatever of the miners and operators coming together on a basis of higher wages.

A BOY AND A GUN

A Bad Combination When Taken With Growing Race Rivalry.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Trouble between the white and colored pupils of public school No. 25 culminated in the possible murder of Harry Payne, eleven years old, colored. He was on his way to school, when Robert Stevenson, a white boy about the same age, met him. Payne flourished a paper in the other boy's face and Stevenson put a small rifle he was carrying against the colored lad's abdomen and fired. The bullet passed through the lad's body and he sank to the ground unconscious. The Stevenson boy disappeared. Physicians say the Payne boy cannot live.

Death Due to Tack.

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The best part of the day is the evening, when the whole family is gathered together around the lamp.

The old days of the smoky fireplace and flickering candle are gone forever. In their place have come the convenient oil stove and the indispensable Rayo Lamp.

There are to-day, in the United States alone, more than 3,000,000 of these Rayo lamps, giving their clear, white light to more than 3,000,000 homes.

Other lamps cost more, but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo gives. It has become so popular we may almost call it "the official lamp of the American family."

The Rayo is made of solid brass, with handsome nickel finish—an ornament anywhere.

Ask your dealer for a Rayo lamp; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the

CAKE MAKING.

The making of cakes as well as the making of bread has passed through a period of evolution. For the busy housewife who finds it necessary to do the bulk of the work and in most cases all of the household work, besides sewing, it seems expedient that she use the utmost economy of effort in accomplishing her duties. The process of cake making has always been one of much time. During recent years of experiment in our cooking school laboratories, we find that good cake, as good as the old method, may be made with much less expense of time, and materials. When butter is 40 cents a pound it is some comfort to know by actual test that we may have cake on our tables without mortgaging the farm. Except when used warm, cakes that are shortened with lard, snowdrift or other pure and odorless fats cannot be told from those made with butter. It is always necessary to remember that the required amount of salt should be used, otherwise the taste of the cake will be flat, stale and unprofitable.

The amount of shortening to be used depends upon the cake, a half to three-quarters of a cup is sufficient. When using butter the old method was first to give the butter a good creaming until soft and waxy then add the sugar gradually, a process exceedingly slow. Now the up-to-date cook when she is extravagant enough to use butter warms it by gentle heat until it is melted, then adds powdered sugar which costs just a cent more for a cake, and she has a cake which can be compared favorably with any creamed butter cake. The fact that the butter can be melted and the sugar added saves much time in the making.

A portion of cake in a serving is equal to a glass and a half of milk or three eggs in food value, so that cake is not entirely a food accessory, but a real food in the menu.

 In melting butter for cake care should be taken that it does not get too hot as butter fat decomposes when heated and is thus less digestible.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE LAD WITH THE LUNCH.

Text, "There is a lad here which hath five barley loaves and two small fishes."—John vi, 9.

Sunset and evening star among the hills of Galilee. Tabor is blazing toward the great sea. Gennesaret in the distance softly heaves and sighs and moans. Mighty multitudes follow Jesus. Oriental crowds are a sad sight even on a gala day. Christ sees them—one vast, pinched, pitiful face of suffering, starving humanity. Night is coming on. Five thousand people are tired, hungry, shelterless. "Send them away," said the disciples. That sounds modern—for education to the state, for healing to hospital, for companionship to club, for entertainment to theater, for religion to Salvation Army. "Give ye them to eat." Christ believed in solving sociological problems not by a tract, but by a dinner. The disciples look dismayed; only $35 in treasury. "What have ye? Go and see." 'Twas the first ways and means committee of the church.

The Boy and His Basket.

Andrew went out and found a boy. Little Ben Ezra has lunch basket his mother packed for him in the morning. God has strange cupboards—bread from heaven, water from a rock, honey from a lion, a raven's beak, a boy's basket. Andrew had brought Simon to the Lord, now this boy. There must have been something congenial between the two. Boys don't fraternize with everybody. Perhaps Andrew had made him a boat or showed him how to catch bass. There are more ways than one of winning the heart of a boy. He didn't lecture the lad on the history of fishes or the growth of wheat. He brought him with his basket in faith to the Lord. I call that pretty big work. Every boy carries a basket of possibilities and a genuine Andrew will bring basket and boy to God. The boy in that crowd was a needle in a haystack, and Andrew found him.

To be able to see small things and unnoticed things is a sixth sense. The ability to set a small diamond well isn't common. To take child material, to arrange and beautify it, to grasp problems that perplex the boy, to note the day when juvenile literature fails to hold, to answer questions without prejudice, indicates qualities that don't grow on every bush. I stood by a grave in Oakland cemetery and read an epitaph over the headstone of California's first kindergartner. I wish I might have such eulogy when I die. It read, "She loved little children."

Christ's Arithmetic.

"How many loaves have you?" He isn't asking for bread, but for faith. Moses' rod, Joshua's trumpet, Gideon's lamp, David's pebble, Mary's vase of spikenard, show not how much but how willing. We frequently have to start to do that for which we have no present ability. The impossible is achieved that way. "Bring them to me." There's a hush. He who placed fish in the sea, gave growth to wheat, raised his hand for silence. His eyes are turned heavenward. His auburn locks glint like copper in the setting sun. Every eye is on him. What will he do next? "What is he doing, neighbor?" "I cannot see myself." "Down in front—we want to see too." He breaks. It grows. He who can create from nothing can increase that which is. Earth's arithmetic says, "Give and grow poor." Heaven's says, "Give and grow rich." Strange mathematical Christ adds by subtraction, multiplies by dividing. We think giving is subtraction, he says that it is multiplication. Some taste skeptically. "How was it done?" "Is it real bread?" Yes, best ever made. Pass it around. They're done. "Are you all fed?" "Aye, aye," answers that first century "bread line." None need ever leave God's table hungry. "Gather the fragments." Twelve baskets over! When each disciple is done serving his basket is still full! Gospel measure! God's way of giving.

"Greater Things Than These."

The world is still pressing and hungry. Humanity and divinity are still face to face on life's hillside. Not clad in turban and gabardines, but twentieth century garments. They're hungry too. God says to you and me, brother, "Give them to eat." "What us?" "Why, we haven't"—Yes, you have! Bring what you have. Every layman cannot be a Moody, every minister a Chapman. Ben Ezra wasn't Andrew, nor was Andrew Christ, yet Andrew and the lad made possible the working of a mighty miracle. God asks for what you have plus your faith. The greatest and most intense game in the world is the bread game. What are you going to be, a bread winner, bread giver or bread wantor? On which side the bread line will you stand? Don't be too finicky explaining about your gospel. It satisfies hunger! In the world's bread line they're not asking about the iron, starch and phosphates in the loaf—only "For God's sake, food!" Mean while keep eyes open for boys and their baskets of possibilities. You're dealing in futures. When they're doing nothing but wearing out church carpet remember that "an inch of boy is worth a million yards of carpet." A young woman who had a class of street boys said, "My boys are like hyacinth bulbs, brown and dirty, but some day beauty will grow forth from them." One became a state governor, another an honored Methodist bishop.

NEW DRUG STORE

We have just opened a New Drug Store at 15 E. 2nd St., Opposite Interurban Station

We do not come to you as a stranger, but are fairly familiar with a majority of the people in Seymour, having been employed with W. F. Peter in what is now the Andrews Drug Store, for three years.

In giving this opening announcement we want to call attention to a few of our remedies, which are something new for ailments most common at this time of the year.

HAZEL CREAM is, as we have found, the very best remedy for rough hands and chafed skin. It is free from grease and is entirely adsorbed by the skin, leaving it dry and smooth, an excellent preparation to use after shaving. We have it in 10c and 25c bottles. Samples free.

LAX TABLETS are small chocolate coated tablets put up in 10c and 25c packages and work wonders for those who are troubled with constipation, indigestion and headache. A dose or two of quinine followed by two Lax Tablets at bedtime make one of the most effective cold remedies we have. Ask for samples.

LIVA-KID is our liver and kidney preparation, which is new in this part of the country, but has been a household remedy in many of the southern states for a number of years. We do not ask you to take our word for the merit of this medicine, but if you are troubled with liver and kidney disorders, have weak back, lost strength and appetite, come to our store and we will give you a free sample bottle that you may test its merits for yourself. Don't put it off; come today.

We are also equipped to attend to your wants in the way of stationery, rubber goods, manicure goods, toilet articles, perfumes, combs, knives, brushes, etc., and especially the drug line proper and your prescriptions.

In your prescriptions we assure you and guarantee you the strength and quantity exactly as your doctor has directed and no substitutes. Our experience and college training enable us to give you the best of service in this line.

We are giving out a handsome and valuable souvenir to each new customer. Come in and get one, even if you don't buy anything.

I know not if her eyes are light
As summer skies or dark as night
I only know that they are dim

In vain I peer

While o'er their surface, like a tear
That ripples to the silken brim,
A look of longing seems to swim
All worn and weary like to me;
And then, as suddenly, my sight
Is blinded with a smile so bright,
Through folded lids I still may see
My bride, my bride that is to be.

REPUDIATES CONFESSION

ened, and on promise of being liberated she gave such answers as she was told to give.

"Who told you to say it?" inquired John Underwood.

"That man right there," she said pointing to T. C. Underwood.

"Who told you to give the answers you gave before the grand jury?" inquired Mr. Underwood.

"That man," and she again pointed to Tom Underwood. "He told me that I would have to go before the grand jury and that I was to give the same answers there that I gave in the mayor's office."

Afterwards, in response to questions that had been asked her in the grand jury room, she denied having made the answers as taken down by the stenographer.

She denied all knowledge of who killed James Mitchell. She said that her brother, Charles Mitchell, left the camp about 6 o'clock on the evening of November 4, and that he did not return to the camp until about 11 o'clock that night, at least that she did not see him between those hours.

The story told by Della Hamilton on direct examination Thursday afternoon did not differ materially from the story she first told at the time of her arrest and which she repeated in part at the trial of Lula Sutton. She repeated that Younger, Fultz and Mitchell all remarked that they had been in similar affairs before.

When the state was through with Mrs. Sutton and the defense had asked her two or three questions, Mayor Fields and T. C. Underwood were placed on the stand to contradict her statement that she had her confession and told her former story of the murder under duress or was forced to do so by threats or by promise of immunity.

Della Hamilton was brought into the court room again this afternoon. She was in tears, but when placed on the witness stand she answered but a single question, when she again refused to talk and was told to stand aside. Another effort will probably be made this afternoon to get her to talk.

Miss Mabel Gray, the court stenographer, who reported the proceedings before the grand jury that indicted Mitchell, Fultz and Younger was placed on the stand as a witness to contradict Mrs. Sutton's testimony this morning. Miss Gray said that the only persons in the grand jury room at the time the statements were made were the members of the grand jury, the prosecutor, Mrs. Sutton and herself, and that Mrs. Sutton made the statements ascribed to her, in which she implicated Mitchell, Fultz and Younger in the murder.

The state has three or four witnesses yet to testify, but will probably rest this afternoon. It is not likely, because of the unexpected delays, that the trial will be conducted Saturday afternoon.

It is more than likely that Mrs. Sutton, by reason of having repudiated her evidence before the grand jury, will have to answer to an indictment of perjury and it may be that when she is released from the woman's prison for contributing to the delinquency of Della Hamilton she may have to return for a much longer sentence. It is even hinted that if the three men are convicted for the murder of James Mitchell she may yet be indicted as an accomplice.

The Rarest Time.

Love will often come again,
Though the first be best;
Second childhood comes to men,
Though 'tis robbed of zest.
Opportunity comes back,
Only changing guise;
Through the centuries return
Comets in the skies.
History repeats itself,
Rings again its chime;
But the fairies only come
Once upon a time.
—McLandburgh Wilson.

The Sting of Memory.

If I had only thought when last we met
In life we two might never meet again.
I would not now be suffering regret
That fills my heart and soul with bitter pain;
For I had paused ere I had given voice
To cruel words that cut you to the heart,
And with the glad thought would now rejoice
In friendship not in anger did we part!
—Henry Waldorf Francis, in Success.

Beauty's Sadness.

Hushed 'neath the midnight rapture overhead,
The village housefronts facing northward shine
Like old romantic streets in lands of wine;
Opposite—night—the wharves, where any tread
Rings on the silent stone, are carpeted
With silver, shadow patterned by the fine
Rigging of anchored schooners. Wind's low whine
In cordage, and the plashing—ne'er ended
While night lasts—of the tide, are all I hear.
The spectral lighthouse 'gainst night's fair blue deep,
Those changing clouds, the moon, one star who's had
Splendor to brave them these warm winds
—make drear
The heart they uplift. And I steal home to sleep,
'Tis you alone, love, makes me always glad.
—Louis How in Smart Set.

The Main Thing.

She was a maid the men all wooed,
Each wished her for his own,
And why, the other maidens sneered,
A mystery was alone,
She was cross-eyed, had brick-red hair,
Her form no grace betrayed;
Her taste in dress was something fierce,
But, oh, the ples she made!

She couldn't for the life of her
Talk in a lively strain,
Nor had the power for one short hour
Her guests to entertain.
She nothing knew of world events,
Of books would no thought take,
The theater got on her nerves—
But she could broil a steak!

She had no personality
Of a magnetic kind;
No deep affections, mind devout,
No charm did any find
Which could make men thus mad for her.
And yet the prize she took
From girls with beauty, brains and style—
She was a splendid cook!

KAISER'S IRE MAY BE TURNED ON POTSDAM

Historic District Sends a Socialist Delegate.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—The reichstag is now complete, the last thirty-three ballots in the elections having been held. The Socialists secured further victories and now have a record membership of 110 in the reichstag. The "blue-black bloc," consisting of the Conservatives and Centerists, which supported the government, was defeated in that its total membership has fallen from 188 to 159. There are 397 members in the reichstag and the house stands: Socialists, 110; Centerists, 93; Conservatives, 66; National Liberals, 47; Radicals, 44; Poles, 18; all others, 19.

The disappointment of the Socialists over the defeat of Herr Duewell by Herr Kaempf in the palace district of Berlin was compensated for by the significant victory at Potsdam, where

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Liebkecht, the Socialist candidate, was elected. This is the first time that a kaiser district has ever been represented in the reichstag by a Socialist.

It remains to be seen whether the emperor will carry out the threat ascribed to him by the Conservative press, that he would quit Potsdam, close his own and the other royal palaces, withdraw the crack regiments and ruin Potsdam from a commercial standpoint if a Socialist were elected. Although the progressive parties outnumber the "bloc," there is general confidence that the government will get majorities for the proposed additions to the naval and military establishments. It is even possible that the new parliament will survive the full five-year term.

A BLOW TO BOOZE

Kentucky Legislature Passes Drastic Local Option Measure.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 27.—The county unit bill, regarded as the most drastic anti-liquor legislation ever enacted in Kentucky, passed the state senate by a vote of 24 to 14. The measure, approved by the lower house, now goes to Governor McCreary, who is expected to sign it. Both Democrats and Republicans in their platforms last fall declared for such a law, and it is safe to say that within a year there will not be a barroom in the state.

Human Thermometers.

The woman's demand for a maid who could stand the heat was perfectly reasonable, but it threw the employment agent into an argumentative mood.

"What difference does that make now?" he said. "Summer is over. There won't be any heat for her to stand."

"Oh, yes, there will be over my coal range," said the woman. "There are a lot of dishes that a girl who is susceptible to heat never can cook as well as one who is not. Hot breads belong in that class. They require a hot oven, and the girl who feels the heat doesn't get it hot enough. She is at the roasting point herself and imagines the oven is in the same condition, when it lacks several degrees of the required temperature. Using herself for a thermometer, that same girl will begin to bake griddle cakes before the fire is hot enough and spoil half the batch."

Next!

Mrs. S. T. Rorer, the cooking expert, compared French and American cooking in a lecture to the girl graduates of Chicago.

"American cooking, with its sample dishes and its free use of the grill," she said, "is healthful, but the rich sauces of French frying and the liberal use of the frying pan make the French flabby and dyspeptic."

"I was once entertained at a Paris restaurant famous for its chef. We had such dishes as salmi of becasse, etuve of beef and aubergine au gratin, and then my host, leaning back with a satisfied smile, handed me the menu and said:

"And what'll you have next, Mrs. Rorer?"

"Well," said I, "I think we'll have indigestion next."

Theft Astonishes Caretakers.

A strange robbery of a cardinal's body has been committed in the St. Flacore chapel at Nancy, France. Two cleaners in the church noticed that the flagstone of one of the tombs had been displaced, and on further investigation discovered that the tomb was empty. It should have contained two coffins, that of Cardinal de Lorraine, son of Charles III., duke of Lorraine, and that of an army lieutenant, but both had disappeared. Historians are amazed at the disappearance of the cardinal's body, and no motive can be attributed for the theft.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear. Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-day, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agents, Andrews Drug Co.

TO DELVE INTO "MONEY TRUST"

Effort to Sidetrack Hearing Is Fruitless.

OPPOSED BY MR. UNDERWOOD

House Leader Argues That Too Many "Inquiries" Are Seriously Interfering With Democratic Legislative Program, but Members in Favor of Pushing Investigation of Financial Oligarchy Seem to Preponderate.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The differences between the members of the house who favor and those who oppose a "money trust" inquiry apparently remain as fixed as ever, efforts to compromise having failed. The indications now are that this question will be thrashed out in a Democratic caucus, with the probability that it will result in a bitter fight between the Bryanites and anti-Bryan Democrats in the house. Those who are supporting Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the committee on rules, who favors an inquiry into the affairs of the so-called money trust, have counted noses and declare with confidence that the caucus will support their position. Representative Underwood of Alabama and other conservative leaders, practically concede that if the matter is referred to a caucus the committee on rules will be instructed to report a money trust resolution.

Harmony Plans Threatened.

The row among the Democrats over the money trust proposition threatens the harmony plans of the majority party. Up to date the house Democrats have managed to preserve an appearance of harmony, but the differences over the Lindbergh resolution have engendered bad feeling which is bound to break out in the coming caucus. Representative Underwood contends that the inquiries now in progress are seriously interfering with the development of the legislative program which the party must put through as a bid for votes in the national campaign. He has, therefore, set his face against the Lindbergh resolution and other measures providing for additional investigations. The trouble, so far as the money trust is concerned, is that Bryan has taken the side of those who oppose the will of Leader Underwood. Mr. Underwood has won over a majority of the members of the committee on rules, but nevertheless Chairman Henry insists that the caucus and not the committee shall be the determining factor in this instance. As it only takes the signature of twenty-five members to call a caucus, Mr. Underwood and his followers do not see how Mr. Henry and those who agree with him can be overcome.

Hearings on the money trust resolutions were continued before the rules committee yesterday. Samuel Undermyer of New York being the principal witness. Mr. Undermyer urged favorable action on the resolution proposing an inquiry into the affairs of the so-called trust. He said the committee would have to look into the relations of the leading international banking houses with American railroads and industrial corporations.

"It would involve," he said, "an examination of the methods of the stock exchange and clearing house association and an analysis of the complicated network of the colossal financial structure that is responsible for a growing money oligarchy that threatens us with grave danger."

CUTTING PRICES

Latest Development in Lew Shank's War on Middlemen.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Under an arrangement made by Mayor Shank in pursuance of his war on the middlemen, pork, cabbage and poultry are on sale at the city market today at prices that tempt the consumer. The mayor also procured three tons of Holland and domestic cabbage, which he is selling at 2½ cents a pound. Dressed chickens are being sold at 18 cents a pound; country butter at 25 to 30 cents a pound, and fresh eggs at 34 cents a dozen.

RECENT HERO BURNED BY FICKLE POPULACE

Ecuadorian Mob Turns Its Wrath On Montero.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Jan. 27.—Until a few days ago a popular hero here, and one time last November proclaimed president by his enthusiastic troops, General Pedro Montero was shot to death here by an angry mob, who afterward dragged the body through the streets, chopped the head off and then started a fire, into which they threw the head and trunk.

General Montero refused the presidency when nominated by the troops, turned the leadership of the provisional government over to General Flavio Alfaro, and took the field at the head of one body of revolutionary troops. He was successful for a while, and was hailed as a great man by the people of Guayaquil. His forces were recently defeated by the government troops from Quito, and Montero and several other generals were captured. They were ordered tried by court martial and Montero's case was the first to be called. The court martial sentenced him to sixteen years' imprisonment. This aroused the greatest indignation on the part of the people, who had clamored for a death sentence. They rushed into the courtroom and riddled the general with bullets.

By this time the mob was beyond all control. They seized the body of the general and dragged it through the streets to a certain place, where a fire was built. Then the head was hacked off and the body and all burned. The mob indulged in shooting in the streets, but there were no serious casualties.

Two other generals, Eloy Alfaro and Paez, who are to be court-martialed, are believed to have been taken to Quito.

Polish "Savior" Balks When Followers Propose His Crucifixion.

Lodz, Russian Poland, Jan. 27.—A man named Kowalski, who had posed here as "the savior," had a narrow escape from crucifixion at the hands of a number of fanatical women. The women, who are Moravians, recently formed a new sect and selected Kowalski as their savior. They worshipped him and finally urged him to allow himself to be crucified in order to prove the truth of his belief in his divinity by his resurrection. Kowalski balked when it came to the crucifixion part of the program, but the women seized him and were about to carry out their plans when the police appeared and saved the man from death on the cross.

INSURGENTS ARE WITH UNDERWOOD

House Leader's Revision Bill Obtains Their Favor.

ACCEPT THE MEANS TO THE END

It Was Pointed Out in the Caucus Held by the Insurgent Republican Members of the House That the Alabama's Bill Was Modeled Along Lines Very Much Like Those of Senator Cummins's Revision Bill.

Washington, Jan. 27.—To decide whether or not they would support the pending Democratic bill proposing a revision of the iron and steel schedule of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, twenty-five Republican insurgent representatives met last night. The sense of the meeting was that the Underwood bill provided for revision downward and should have the support of progressive Republicans. While a final decision was not reached by the insurgents, the informal announcement was made to the effect that practically every member of the group would support the iron and steel bill as well as the other tariff measures that will be reported to the house by Representative Underwood and his Democratic associates on the committee of ways and means.

In framing the iron and steel bill, Chairman Underwood made a bid for the support of the progressives of the house and senate. This was indicated in the speech made by Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, who opened the debate on the measure. Mr. Palmer pointed out that the bill reported by the Democrats was patterned to some extent after the metal schedule offered in the special session by Senator Cummins of Iowa, one of the progressive candidates for the presidential nomination.

At the meeting of the insurgent Republicans the resemblance of the Underwood bill to the Cummins amendment was emphasized for some of the weak-kneed brethren who wavered between a desire to "insurge" and a wish to stand by the regular organization as represented by Minority Leader Mann. The radicals practically won their point. They believe that of the thirty or more insurgents and near insurgents on the Republican side, at least twenty-five will line up with the Democrats behind Majority Leader Underwood.

GETTING TOGETHER

Rival Telephone Companies at Indianapolis Weary of Competition.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Representatives of the Indianapolis Telephone company have submitted to the board of public works a proposed agreement and franchise to govern a unification of the two telephone systems. The agreement and franchise is not to become effective until it is ratified by the council and until a single telephone system is being actually operated and maintained. At such time the proposed franchise would take the place of the individual franchise held by the respective companies.

The two companies agree, following a ratification of the franchise and agreement by the city council, to proceed in good faith and without delay to effect a unification and to make reasonable efforts to effect such unification within six months after the contract and franchise have been ratified. The proposed franchise provides a one-third increase in rates over those now charged by the individual companies.
